Dr. Daizell (rep., Pat): "The president's view on the tariff seem to be on the line herelofore laid down by him. He thinks a protective tariff lavariably mittee. Of course, as was to be expected, he is still after the markets of the world, a very desirable thing if present conditions contiane, because problem is the result of t any money to spend in them. The most astonishing thing in the message is that an encome tax has been agreed upon. That is news. I happen to be a member of the minority of the ways and means comultice, but it is the first time I knew such a tax has been agreed upon, although I have inquired diligently about It every day. So far as the tariff is concerned the message is not a valuable contribution to the discussion.
